People and Places

By George the Gadabout
The old adage about Americans being set in their ways and lacking any sense of adventure in regard to their eating habits is rapidly going by the board. All we needed was a chance to start our adventures in eating at places established and manned by people who knew what they were doing. We are all, especially the male side, partial to a good steak with french fries or roast beef but we can no longer be accused of remaining aloof from some of the finest taste sensations in the culinary science.

The great popularity of Oriental food in the City and Surf area is shared by newcomers to California as well as long established residents. There is a fine art involved in the preparation of these delicacies which seem to have as much eye appeal as almost anything we have eaten. Ding How's in Torrance is a perfect spot for Chinese Food and if there is a stubborn one in the crowd he can still have his steak prepared to taste.

A large part of dining out is the pleasant atmosphere one finds in many of the City and Surf areas. This is not to cast aspersions on the atmosphere in our homes. Most of us however cannot afford to maintain a dining room that would compare with the quiet beauty of Caprino's. This haven in downtown Torrance is without a doubt one of the most elegant eateries in the area. It is extremely well appointed, with soft but adequate lighting. If Caprino's were on the Sunset Strip it could show up some of the highly touted spots in all departments: beauty of surroundings and superiority of menu offerings. If you haven't had the pleasure, by all means pay a visit to Caprino's. Your hosts Joe and Frank will make you glad you dropped in.

When you are out for a Sunday drive and pass Vivian Laird's, drop in with the whole family. Four of you can have an excellent meal well under ten dollars. There's dinner music and dancing later if you care to avail yourself. Also two excellent cocktail bars. And no cover charge or minimum. Vivian's is easy to find and she is one of Long Beach's best known and longest established restaurateurs. Those years of experience show in the smooth function and service of this popular supper club.

For the family, and specializing in fine food and a top piece of pie, we suggest Zins on Narbonne in Lomita. Everything is superb and the baked ham has that real flavor and taste, the trade mark of a chef who loves his work.

City and Surf winners and diners who want real attention for their night out can be assured of door to door service by the A-1 Taxi Service. The orange-and black taxis are operated by Stan Watts of Walteria. Stan specializes in courteous and efficient service for patrons of the Torrance area. Just to make sure everything is as it should be, Stan is often to be seen wheeling one of his well kept taxis around the area. Take a cab and be sure of a carefree evening.

We don't know of another place where you can take the entire family for dinner and be handed such a reasonable tab as you'll receive at the Windjammer. Located at 117 Ave. I in Redondo, the Windjammer offers a broiled steak for $1.10, so bring the gang. Meet Andy at the broiler, Paul at the bar, and Pearl who makes sure everything is just right.

Dining and Entertainment Guide

So you would like some good barbecue — go to the Bar B Q Round Up at 257 Avenida Del Norte in the Riviera. Frank Zarkos has a real western, sawdust on the floor, barbecue established here. Frank says his specialty is good barbecue; barbecue beef, barbecue pork, sandwiches, spare ribs, etc. You name it and the Round Up has it. This is a busy place and its understandable. Just come in, relax, and eat all the barbecue you've been craving.

On Hawthorne Blvd., just off Pacific Coast Hwy., a useful new addition to City and Surf entertainment and dining places is the Open Hearth. A well appointed restaurant and cocktail lounge also specializing in Italian cuisine. You'll like this cozy place. There's piano nightly for your enjoyment.

Things are really getting organized at the Rav-On Supper Club in the Riviera. Your favorite foods from the buffet and well mixed beverages from the bar. Sterling Dixon is at the keyboard of the electronic piano for your evening entertainment. The Rav-On is a very popular spot for luncheon as well as your dinner and evening enjoyment. Leo and Jerry are your hosts and they are determined to give you the best in every department.

Enjoying ever increasing popularity in the Spanish food category is Gonzales on Anaheim in Wilmington. A beautiful establishment with interesting old Mexico photographic murals on the walls, Gonzales has those delicacies that you always enjoy. Try the combination plate if you can't decide on anything else. You'll really know you have had a meal.

The Hampton Players will present "The Rainmaker" on or about the 21 of June for approximately an eight week-end run. Plan now to attend on one of these Friday or Saturday nights. The very fine play has an outstanding cast. It will be presented in the unique setting of the auditorium above the Daily Breeze in Redondo. For a Broadway kind of evening make a date to enjoy dinner at one of our outstanding City and Surf restaurants and attend "The Rainmaker". Polish off your evening by stopping for a snack and cocktails. You'll be glad you did. We have all the ingredients for a real night out.
